Bless the LORD, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless His holy name! Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all His benefits: (Psalm 103:1-2 NKJV)

As we approach Thanksgiving, let us not forget to whom our thanks is due. Thank the One who creates and sustains; shields and protects. Remember to thank the Lord for what He has done and is doing for you.

We want each of you to know that we are thankful to the Lord for YOU! You have blessed us, and everyone the Lord touches through this ministry, with your prayers and financial support. Thank you and may you know the Lord's blessings toward you.

Over the past few weeks, six of us went to Carbondale, IL, the home of Southern Illinois University, to share the Gospel with the college students and others who participated in the Halloween "festivities" on two weekends. Over the three evenings, we handed out about 2,500 Gospel tracts. All of us had a number of opportunities to share the Gospel in conversation. I had a good laugh as well when one of the students asked me, "Why the cross?", then came to the conclusion that the cross I was holding and my "Jesus Loves You" shirt were my Halloween costume. In the process of correcting her assumption, I shared with her about the significance of the Cross and the love of Jesus, the One who loved her enough to die so she might have the opportunity to receive eternal life. Please pray for the Lord's future harvest from the young men and women with whom we interacted!

Conversations at the cross

Through the rest of the Holiday season, Cindy and I will be volunteering a few days a week as bell-ringers for the Salvation Army. In the past, we have used this opportunity, with their permission, to pass out Christmas-themed Gospel tracts and play and/or sing Christmas carols, entering into Gospel conversations as the Lord allows. This year, Lord willing, we will also share the Christmas story from Scripture while we are out "ringin' the bell". We ask for your prayers as we do this. Our desire is that as we proclaim the celebration of the Lord's advent into this world, He will draw others to Himself to worship and celebrate Jesus, not just for this season but for the rest of eternity!

Until Jesus comes,

Dennis, & Cindy
