Mission to Mardi Gras 2016

Have you ever found it hard to express what you would like to make known? I have. It is that way with this year's mission to witness to the crowds in New Orleans during Mardi Gras. There are so many things that could be said to so many about this mission. I am convicted that expressing gratitude is the best way.

- Thank you LORD
  - For calling us and providing the Way for us to be born into Your family.
  - For calling us to be part of what you were going to do at Mardi Gras this year.
  - For protecting our wives, families, and homes while we were away.
  - For being present during our worship and devotional time.
  - For guiding us on the mission field as only You can!
  - For protecting us on the mission field!
  - For allowing us to sow about 40,000 Gospel seeds! We pray for good soil.
  - For allowing us to see You work in the field in the harvest of eight souls!
  - For granting all of the men safe travels to return home.
  - For blessing the efforts and involvement of everyone who participated in any fashion.
- Thank you men of God
  - For answering the Lord's call on your life to share the Gospel at Mardi Gras this year.
  - For displaying that special unity for which our Lord prayed that, in itself, is a testimony to the world of the truth of His coming.
  - For coming alongside each other in prayer and fellowship.
  - For using the talents and passions the Lord gave you to lead us in worship, bring the Word, provide training, serve as leaders on the streets. . .
  - For sharing the Gospel in love even as our Lord did!
  - For responding to ridicule with words that were "full of grace, seasoned with salt".
  - For risking being called a "fool for Christ" to the Glory of God!
- Thank you Prayer Warriors for interceding
  - For our spouses and families. I know of no major issues on anyone's home front during the mission.
  - For our witness both to the lost and other Christians. There were many good conversations this year.
  - For the authorities. Many of them thanked us for our presence on the streets.
  - For the lost to hear. Please remain in prayer for the sowing and watering that was done into the lives of the lost and the mentoring that took place with the Christians who were on the streets for less than noble reasons.
- Thank you to all the participating ladies of FBC-Marion, in addition to your prayers, for the encouragement and nourishment the Lord provided through you with the "Blessing Box".
- Thank you to Vieux Carre Baptist Church for being a "City on a hill" for us. Within your walls was a haven of rest.
- Thank you to all who helped support this mission financially.
- Thank you to those who are following up on professions of faith by reaching out with the love of Jesus to those who professed the Lord or expressed a need as well as for your efforts in seeking out churches that will reach out to them. Please be in prayer for this important continuation of the mission.

As I look at the list above, it is apparent to me that, regardless of who goes or stays, the Lord will use all of us in a unique way to accomplish His purpose if we only allow it. If you believe that you are to have a part in the 2017 Mission to Mardi Gras, don't wait until next year to act upon your belief. Please contact me now.

Cindy and I are headed for Arkansas in March to "spy out the land" regarding a potential mission in April. We will also be seeking the Lord's direction as we begin preparations for other missions that were on the schedule we enclosed with our newsletter last month. We ask for your prayers for the following:

- That, as we seek to involve others in these missions, those called of the Lord will step out for Him!
- The Lord to provide from His abundance for the missions.
- The Lord to provide increased opportunities to train and encourage others in personal evangelism.

Cindy and I thank you for your prayers and support. You are a blessing to us.
