For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

2 Corinthians 5:21 (NKJV)

I woke up Tuesday morning grateful to the Lord. Amazingly, this attitude hasn't been lost in either the busy-ness or the mundane this week. I am still grateful. I do have a lot for which I should always be grateful this side of Jesus. God has blessed me beyond what I can imagine and certainly beyond what I deserve. But I wasn't thinking about things this side of Jesus when I awoke. My eyes opened Tuesday morning with the verse at the top of this letter resounding in both my head and my heart. I am overwhelmed by both the majesty of God and the humility of God that are explicitly expressed in this verse. Each expressed for one purpose: ". . . that we might become the righteousness of God in Him!" I can only say, "Thank you Lord! May your people always be grateful for what You have done."

This week I leave for the Mission to Mardi Gras. Lord willing, we will have fifty men sharing the message inherent in the verse above. The message? The Lord loves you and made a way for you to be right with Him and restored to Him. The way? Jesus Christ; the one who became sin for you that you might be forgiven and become a child of the Most High God! Another way? There isn't one. The cost of the way God provided was too high for another way to exist. "Repent therefore and turn to God that your sins may be wiped away". This is our message to the crowd. Please pray they will have ears to hear and hearts to respond.

We thank you for your continued intercession for this ministry. If the Lord calls you to go on mission with us, or you are led to help support a mission or any part of our ministry, please contact us.

Until Jesus comes,

Dennis & Cindy
