"O God, You are my God; early will I seek You;
My soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You
In a dry and thirsty land where there is no water."

Psalm 63:1 (NKJV)

The Lord woke me up last night; early this morning actually. This happens, usually with a call to pray for some specific person or issue. Last night? Nothing. Outside a storm was brewing. I saw flashes of lightning then heard the rumble and knew the storm was still some distance away. However, I also knew the coming storm had not awakened me. I got up to be with my Lord.

I began to pray, albeit half-heartedly, for I still had no inkling as to the why of being up this night. And since I didn't know why or for what I was to pray, I began to pray for myself because I know the cracks in this vessel. Almost immediately I heard, or sensed, "Hush. Listen.". I listened as the storm approached. Lightning flashed, turning the inside of my eyelids white with the intensity of the power displayed even as I heard the rumble that resulted from its release and I knew the storm was near. As the lightning flashed and the thunder rolled, I heard the rain begin to fall. The thunder ceased as the rain fell with greater intensity; lightning continued to flash against my eyes but I heard nothing but the rain. After a time, the rain began to slow then stopped. In the silence I heard the water dripping to the ground; a final testimony to what I had heard but not seen. After seeking the Lord's forgiveness for my earlier less-than-devoted beginnings in prayer, I thanked Him for what I had heard and went back to bed.

What had I heard? I heard the promise of God as, in His faithfulness, He provided what was needed. I heard the Lord come with power and majesty to bring necessary refreshing to the earth. And in the hearing, I heard once again that I could trust the Lord will keep that same promise to this cracked vessel, who in some ways can be more parched than even a drought-ridden land. And this holds true for all of us. Even as the Lord provided at the cross, in his faithfulness He continues, with power and majesty, to provide the refreshing we need to move forward in this world of trial and, sometimes, heartache. And if we listen, we will hear the still, small voice of our Lord say, "Peace. Be still.", even as we listen to the thunder from His lightning, which flashes white on our eyelids, while we wait for the rain.

"He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?"

Romans 8:32 (NKJV)

Thanks to all who helped Cindy and myself bless Vieux Carre Baptist Church in our Ministry to a Ministry campaign. Our van was full! Left to right, front to back FULL! With your help, we were able to take clothing, hygiene products, backpacks, food, and basic medical supplies to Vieux Carre to aid them in their ministry to those in need in the French Quarter of New Orleans. We are grateful to the Lord that He provided. And He provided through you!

Cindy and I continue to work with some of the local food distributions being done by our Brothers and Sisters in Christ. This gives us the opportunity to pray with and minister to people regarding their needs, share the Gospel, and be involved in providing a tangible physical need (food) which the Lord provides through various agencies. We are blessed to serve the Lord with these groups!

The Lord has continued to fill my preaching schedule for which I am grateful. As well, our ministry to the residents of the Lighthouse Shelter is ongoing. This fall will mark the beginning of our seventh year of ministry there! For all the opportunities the Lord places before us, we are truly thankful to the Him!

We ask for your prayers for the ongoing ministry of Call of Grace. We also request your prayers for the following:

- Stand in the gap for your Brothers and Sisters that we, as His people, would act with faith on the promise in 2 Chron 7:14.
- Pray for those in law enforcement who are dedicated to serving and protecting all who live in our society. May the Lord protect and bless the blue line standing between us and anarchy.
- Pray for our nation's leaders at every level.

Thank you for your prayers and support. Everything the Lord calls us to do is done with your help and we are thankful to the Lord for your service to Him with us. If He calls you to go on mission with us, wherever we go, or to help support a mission or any part of our ministry, please let us know. Likewise, if you or your church believe we could be of service to you as regards your evangelistic efforts, please contact us.

Until Jesus comes,

Dennis & Cindy Mohr
