“The LORD is my portion,” says my soul, “Therefore I hope in Him!”

Lamentations 3:24 (NKJV)

This morning, I awakened before 4 AM. Yesterday, the Illinois legislature exalted evil and further divided the family unit by striking down the state law that required a parent to be informed prior to a minor child having an abortion. This is what came to mind this morning even before I was out of bed. As I considered the rapidly-spiraling descent into depravity that is taking place in our nation (for a list, see Romans 1:24-32) and the toll it has taken on our society, I became despondent. "How much?", I wondered. How much farther down the slope, how much more evil can it get? Even as I began to think about this, another thought came to mind. With the Lord, there is hope!

We know there is a Day coming when God will dwell with His people and our suffering will cease. Sin will no more have a place in our presence for we will be in His Presence. And in His Presence, unity and peace will reign even as He reigns! When will this be? It is not for us to know. So, with hope, we watch and wait, serving our Lord as we do so, knowing, because of His faithfulness, the Day is coming.

Yet even in this day of waiting, we have hope for it is inherent in the truth of the Gospel! Within it resides the vision of God's love, brutally displayed on the Cross to reveal to all who will see the cost of God's mercy, resulting in our opportunity to be forgiven for sin. As well, in the Gospel we find hope for Eternity in the form of an empty tomb where Jesus, the Lord of Creation, once lay after giving His life for ours. Because He rose justified, we can know that He died for our sin and none of His own! And in these truths, we find our hope as we place our faith in the Lord Jesus!

Brothers and Sisters, our hope is in Christ and we heard of this hope when the Gospel was shared with us. We also must share this Gospel of hope! For within the Gospel resides the power of God to bring salvation: changing the hearts and minds of men and women even as they are made new!

Can we change things? Can we stop or reverse the tide of evil that is flooding our society? Scripture says, "No.", for evil will abound as the end draws ever nearer. Can we slow the spread of evil and depravity by standing against it as we are commanded to do? I don't know. But this I do know. The Lord will change everything for the one who responds in faith to the Gospel when you share it. Because within the Gospel lies the hope that is inherent in the promise of a risen Savior!

The Lord continues to keep us busy. We have been serving with the food banks in our area, witnessing to those who are waiting in the line(s) of cars. The Bible study at the Lighthouse Shelter continues to provide opportunities for us and others to share the Gospel with the residents and to disciple and encourage those who know Christ in their walk with and for the Lord. As well, the Lord is still providing opportunities for me to speak His word in various churches as their need arises. And through you, He has provided us with the means to supply a quantity of Bibles and Gospel tracts for a Thanksgiving basket distribution to those in need. In all of this, we are thankful to the Lord for the privilege of serving Him!

Looking Ahead

- Men, the 2022 Mission to Mardi Gras is Feb. 24th - March 1st. Please be in prayer regarding your participation in this mission for our Lord. If you would like to know more, please contact me.

Likewise, if you or your church believe we could be of service to you as regards your evangelistic efforts, please contact us.

Until Jesus comes,

~Cindy's Bottom Line~

"For the revelation awaits an appointed time; it speaks of the end and will not prove false. Though it linger, wait for it; it will certainly come and will not delay. . .For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea."
