“So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in His ways and by fearing Him.”

Deuteronomy 8:6 (ESV)

Below is a passage from “Waiting on God”, written by Andrew Murray. Together, the excerpt, and the Scripture above are from a yearly devotional titled, “How Great is our God”. It is my prayer that, when we feel defeated in some area of our life and walk with the Lord, we will remember His faithfulness and the “immeasurable greatness of His power” working in us (Eph 3:20) and toward us (Eph 1:15-17, 19).

“Wait on the Lord and keep His way” (Psalm 37:34, KJV). It may be that the consciousness of shortcoming and sin makes those words look more like a hindrance than a help in waiting on God. Let it not be so.

It is true you have not the strength yet to keep all God’s ways. But keep carefully those for which you have received strength already. Surrender yourself willingly and trustingly to keep all God’s ways, in the strength which will come in waiting on Him, without reserve and without doubt. He will work in you that which is pleasing in His sight through Jesus Christ.

Keep His ways, as you know them in the Word. Keep His ways, as nature teaches them, in always doing what appears right. Keep His ways, as Providence points them out. Keep His ways, as the Holy Spirit suggests. However weak you feel, only be willing, and He who has worked to will, will work to do by His power.

Come with everything evil you feel in yourself, every memory of unwillingness, unwatchfulness, unfaithfulness, and all that causes such unceasing self-condemnation. Put your power in God’s omnipotence, and find in waiting on God your deliverance.

Your failure has been owing to only one thing: you sought to conquer and obey in your own strength. Come and bow before God until you learn that He alone is good, and He alone can work any good thing. Believe that there is no true power in you, and in all that nature can do.

Be content to receive from God each moment the inworking of His mighty grace and life, and waiting on God will become the renewal of your strength to run in His ways and not be weary, to walk in His paths and never faint.

Cindy and I will be packing the van and heading to New Orleans this weekend to bring items to Vieux Carre Baptist Church. We have a van load full of clothes, blankets, hygiene supplies, etc, to deliver to the church. Vieux Carre will use these items to meet physical needs as they share the truth of a risen Lord and Savior: everyone’s greatest need!

Cindy and I thank all of you for your donations and prayers for this ministry to a ministry! We collect for this year-round; if you, your Sunday School/small group, or your church would like to donate, please contact us.

The Memphis in May Outreach is May 4th-7th. We will arrive the evening of Thursday, May 4th, and travel home on Sunday, May 7th. This mission takes place during the Beale Street Music Festival. Men, if you are called to be on this mission, please contact me.

Cindy and I are also planning a mission to coincide with the Memphis Barbecue World Championship. Tentative dates are May 18th-21st. We will arrive the evening of Thursday, May 18th, and travel home on the 21st. This outreach is purely evangelistic. It is open to men and women. If you have an interest in this opportunity to share Christ, contact Cindy or myself at the phone numbers on the first page of this newsletter.

For either of the missions above, if you can come for a day, please join us.

We also request your prayers for the following:

- Please stand in the gap for your Brothers and Sisters that we, as His people, would act and pray in faith on the promise in 2 Chron 7:14.
- Pray for our nation's leaders at every level.
- We ask that you pray for the ongoing ministry of Call of Grace

Is there something we can pray for you? If so please let us know.

Thank you for your prayers and support. Everything the Lord calls us to do is done with your help and we are thankful to the Lord for your service to Him with us. If He calls you to go on mission with us, wherever we go, or to help support a mission or any part of our ministry, please let us know. Likewise, if you or your church believe we could be of service to you as regards your evangelistic efforts, please contact us.

Until Jesus comes,

Dennis & Cindy

~Cindy's Bottom Line~

Just as King David cried out to the Lord, may we offer up that same heartfelt prayer:

“Teach me your way, LORD, that I may rely on your faithfulness; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name.”

Psalm 86:11 (NIV)
