“For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified.”

1 Corinthians 2:2 (NKJV)

Wherever a conversation starts if you wish to share the Gospel, you must direct it to the Cross. The Apostle Paul knew this. And when faced with the idolatrous and fleshly excesses of Corinth, Paul did not steep his message in the rhetoric and wisdom of the age. Instead, he preached the most outrageous thing: God humbling Himself to die on a cross as a sacrifice for the sin of His Creation. It's an offensive concept to the devout Jew even today. And a ridiculous idea, then and now, to those who are so wise in their own eyes that they reject truth, leaving them with a god of their own design. Yet Scripture reveals that the power of God and His manifold wisdom are seen in Christ by those who receive Him. For it is at the Cross that Jesus paid the price for the sin of man, that the dead might live.

It is our prayer that you will only boast in the glory of the Cross where Jesus died. . . for you!

The Mission to Mardi Gras is over. Over the days and nights on the street, the 25 men called to this mission served in the Lord's field to proclaim His Gospel. More than 42,000 Gospel tracts were distributed over the six days of ministry in New Orleans. Many conversations also took place. 8 people responded with professions of saving faith in the Lord and 1 man rededicated his life to the Lord! We are in the process of reaching out to each of these to offer whatever assistance/materials we can to them as they begin their new life with Christ. Please be in prayer for them. Pray as well for the seeds planted and other work done in God's field through the tracts, preaching, and conversations; may the Lord give increase to His Glory!

~Cindy's Bottom Line~

As we prepare our hearts for Easter, let us reflect on the victory over sin and death secured by Christ on the cross for those who believe and trust in Him.

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.”

John 3:16 (ESV)
